

Are you learning online? Project Lead the Way (PLTW) can help!

Where You Learn

- Pick a comfy and quiet place to learn.
- Make sure you have everything you need to learn online, including a digital device.
- Get some paper and a pencil.
- Gather all of the things that your teacher gave you to learn.

How You Learn & Who Can Help

- Respect others.
- Make a plan for how you will learn best.
- Ask your teacher for help.
- Take care of yourself.
- Be nice when you talk with others.
- Ask your caregiver for help with learning activities.
- Share your work with your teacher, your caregiver, and your classmates.
- Come to online class meetings ready to learn and participate.
- Enjoy exploring new things.
- Be creative in your work.

Project Lead The Way (PLTW) would like to thank the following individuals and organizations for their contributions to the development of this guide:

- Dr. Kathryn Kennedy, an education consultant specializing in online, blended, and digital learning. The foundation of the guide is based on work done by Michigan Virtual™, through its Michigan Virtual Learning Research Institute®, where Dr. Kennedy served as Director from 2013 - 2018.
- PLTW partners Amazon Web Services, ArcelorMittal, Chevron, Toyota, and Verizon for their generous support that has enabled PLTW to effectively serve its network of schools and districts in a distance learning environment.
- Last but not least, PLTW Team Members, who represent years of experience in the classroom and as administrators, and bring significant expertise in instructional design, activity-project-problem-based content development, student engagement, and teacher professional development.
